Little Patriots Embraced

Press Release

For Immediate Release: March 12, 2013

St. Louis Cardinal Baseball...will recognize Little Patriots Embraced and at Jupiter FL on Saturday March 16th

The St. Louis Baseball Cardinals will recognize two Missouri based organizations this Saturday in Jupiter, FL.

Little Patriots Embraced will be recognized for their service to our Military Families. The charity has served over 18,000 military children through their programs over the past eight years. The second organization is the Association of the United States Army, Ft. Leonard Wood Chapter, Wounded Warrior Transition Program, serving military families based out of St. Louis, Missouri.

March 16th in Jupiter, FL a Military Family, hosted by Little Patriots Embraced, will be honored on the field before the St. Louis Cardinals/Detroit Tigers game. Representing one the thousands of Military Families the charity has served will be Marine Major Grant Clester, and his family. Major Clester has been deployed five times in recent years. Major Clester is currently based out of MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa.

Sponsored by the Association of the United States Army, Ft. Leonard Wood Chapter, Wounded Warrior Transition Program, will be Sergeant Jeremy Turner, accompanied by his family. Sergeant Turner is a recipient of the Purple Heart for wounds he received in Afghanistan while in pursuit of the Taliban terrorists.

Both families will be honored for their service to our country as they throw out the first pitch of the March 16th game in Jupiter FL!

Little Patriots Embraced (LPE) is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) charity based in St. Louis, MO serving nationwide. LPE serves military families and their as they face the emotional stress of deployment. The organization is a home front Group charity and is listed on the Department of Defense website www.ourmilitary.mil LPE has served our military families through their programs for over eight years.
