Press Release

For immediate release

December 13, 2006 – St. Louis Based Non-Profit Organization, Little Patriots Embraced, visited the US Pentagon and the White House

Little Patriots Embraced founder Mary Frost toured the White House and then was transported to the Pentagon to take part in the America Supports You annual conference.

The group was welcomed by Ms. Allison Barber, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs and briefed on the days agenda. The group was given an update on the Global War on Terror by Brigadier General Mark O. Schissler, USAF. In addition, they took part in breakout sessions regarding how better to serve the military families. Donald Rumsfeld, Secretary of Defense provided discussion and remarks. To conclude there was an ethics overview led by Mr. Stephen Epstein, Department of Defense General Counsel on Standards of Conduct for Non Profits.

The mission of Little Patriots Embraced is to reduce the emotional and psychological stress faced by the families of the deployed U.S. military serving throughout the world.

The goals of the organization are to deliver three specific programs that help support military family members. To learn more about these programs visit www.littlepatriotsembraced.org
